THE importance of purity in Photographic Chemicals must suggest itself to all. Our imports have for the past half century been acknowledged as PRACTICALLY PURE, THOROUGHLY RELIABLE, and of UNIFORM STRENGTH AND CHARACTER. Commercial samples (as met with in Indian bazaars), though perhaps unadulterated in the strict sense of the term, are not always to be depended upon, as they are liable to be contaminated with other matter which will unfavourably affect results when operating.

The Bombay Gazette

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1883.

THE Marquis of Hartington's speech at Accrington is evidently intended to negative any supposition that might have been raised by Mr. Atkins' version of Lord Kimberley's remarks that the British Government repudiated the Ilbert Bill. Lord Hartington warmly advocates the measure, and accepts its responsibility. This tells us nothing new. We knew before from Mr. Gladstone, Lord Northbrook, and Lord Hartington himself that the Ministry approved the Bill. It is equally notorious that Sir Stafford Northcote and other Conservative leaders are disposed to entertain the same view, though, of course, not unwilling to profit for party purposes by the possible embarrassment of the Ministry. Now that the head of the Government in India has been subjected to organised insults in the streets of Calcutta, we shall no doubt have a general chorus of approval of the Bill, and condemnation of the perverse and suicidal tactics of the shallow clique of Bengal mischief-makers who have so irretrievably damned the cause of the opposition. Nothing could have been better calculated to arouse the anger of the Liberals, who after all are a majority in Great Britain, than this deliberate insult to a Liberal Viceroy; while Conservatives of every shade will refuse their sympathy to those who planned and carried out an insolent affront to Her Majesty's representative. Had the outrageous exhibition which marked the return of Lord Ripon to Calcutta been a spontaneous explosion of political illwill, it would have been deplorable indeed, but it would not necessarily have been odious and contemptible. What arouses indignation is that the display of vulgar animosity was predicted and pre-arranged.

THREE bulky volumes containing a report on the census of Bengal have been issued for the Government of that Province by Mr. J. A. Bourdillon of its Civil Service and Deputy Superintendent of Census Operations. In spite of the many difficulties that were naturally to be met in a work of such magnitude and complexity, the operations were completely successful, and the accuracy of the returns reflects the greatest credit upon all concerned in an important task. Nor is Mr. Bourdillon slow in acknowledging the services of those who worked under him in the different districts, or helped him in their official capacities. He is of op

ARRIVAL OF THE ROYAL VISITORS AT CALCUTTA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, DEC. 3.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught arrived this morning at eight o'clock. Their Royal Highnesses were received at the Howrah station by Lord William Beresford, Mr. St. Quinton, and the Deputy Commissioner of Police. The East Indian Railway Volunteers formed a guard-of-honour on the platform of the Howrah station, and a body of native troops, with band, were drawn up outside the station. En route to Government House Their Highnesses met with a most enthusiastic reception, and were escorted by the Viceroy's Body-guard. A guard-of-honour, consisting of the Calcutta Volunteers, who mustered in full strength, and the Warwickshire Regiment, with band and colours, was formed in Government House compound. The Mounted Volunteers turned out about eighty strong, and there was a large gathering on the grand staircase, consisting of most of the prominent members of Calcutta society, both European and native. The Duke on alighting was conducted to the top of the staircase, where an address from the inhabitants of Calcutta was read to him by Mr. Harrison. The address ran as follows :—

To his Royal Highness ARTHUR WILLIAM PATRICK ALBERT, Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, Earl of Sussex, Prince of the United Kingdom, Duke of Saxony, and Prince of Coburg and Gotha.

May it please your Royal Highness,—We, the Corporation of the town of Calcutta, and the Representative Committee of its citizens selected for the purpose of receiving your Royal Highness, most respectfully tender to you and your Royal Consort our heartfelt welcome on this auspicious occasion of your entry into the capital of India, the most populous and most important dependency of the British Crown.

This is the third time within the last few years that the loyalty of the inhabitants of this great city to their Most Gracious and beloved Sovereign has been evoked by the presence in their midst of one of her illustrious sons ; but on the present occasion our gratification is enhanced by the knowledge that your Royal Highness has come to this country to make it your residence and the scene of your devotion to the noble profession you have embraced. We only give expression to a feeling which is universal in saying that her Majesty's Indian Army, both European and Native, is ennobled by ranking among the general officers so distinguished a member of the Royal Family, and we feel assured that your Royal Highness's command will tend to strengthen the bonds which unite all her Majesty's forces, British and Indian, and to cement the union which has been built up by their companionship in arms on so many honourable and well-fought fields. We cannot but remember that your Royal Highness witnessed and participated in the last glorious victory won by their united exertions.

Eight years ago, when welcoming to these shores your royal brother, the Heir to the Throne, we had to regret that the hope which had been at one time indulged in, that he would be accompanied by his Royal Consort, the Princess of Wales, could not be fulfilled. No such regret mingles with the happiness, which all classes of the community to-day experience. For the first time a Princess of the Royal Family now visits this historic land, and we can assure your Royal Highness that the enthusiasm which her presence has already evoked in all the Indian cities and places, through which her Royal Highness has passed, will be fully equaled by that which will greet her in Calcutta. Our fervent wish is that your Royal Highness' sojourn in this country may be blessed with every happiness, and may in after years be looked back upon by you both with pleasure, linked with kindly memories of India and its people.

In conclusion, we would ask your Royal Highness to convey once more to your Imperial mother, our beloved Queen-Empress, this expression of our devoted loyalty to her throne and person. It is no ordinary sentiment of affection and allegiance which her name elicits among her subject in this land. The genuine interest which Her Majesty takes in the well-being of the inhabitants of this important appanage of her Crown is known throughout the length and breadth of Hindostan, and has sunk deeply into the hearts of its people. Loyalty to her person is the one sentiment uniting all sections and parties, and common to all the races however diverse their religions, which are dispersed over this vast Continent. That her glorious and beneficent reign may be prolonged for many years to come, is the earnest hope of all India.

The Duke in replying said he was very much pleased with the reception that he had met with in India. He hoped that during the time of his stay in India he would be brought into more intimate connection with, and obtain a more intimate knowledge of, the numerous great races which collectively constituted our Indian Empire. In conclusion he said that on behalf of the Queen he thanked the inhabitants of Calcutta for the reception they had given to him as a member of the Royal Family. He would convey to his Royal mother the sentiments with which the European community and the native community had greeted him.

To-day has been a gala day in Calcutta. There has been a plentiful display of bunting and evergreens, but on the whole it is considered that the decorations have been more tawdry than might have been expected.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught arrived here this morning. The entire route from the railway station to Government House was profusely decorated, the shops in Old Court House-street vieing with each other in a display of foliage and bunting. The railway station, the Hooghly bridge, and the shipping presented a grand appearance. His Royal Highness was received at the Howrah station by the Deputy Commissioner of Police, the Military Secretary to the Viceroy, an A.-D.-C., and a large gathering of ladies and gentlemen. The E. I. Railway Volunteers furnished a guard-of-honour, presenting arms as the Royal couple alighted. The Calcutta Mounted Volunteer Corps had asked to be allowed to furnish an escort from the station, but it is understood that the Duke declined the offer on the ground that as a guest of the Viceroy he was unwilling to accept an attention not proffered to the Viceroy. Two little children presented bouquets of flowers, and some other little girls strewed flowers before Their Highnesses, who on getting into the carriage were cheered lustily along the entire route till their arrival at Government House. Here the Warwickshire Regiment and the Calcutta Volunteers furnished guards-of-honour. His Highness was received on the steps of Government House by the Viceroy and staff and the Lieutenant-Governor's staff, the Chief Justice, Lord Bishop, and the principal civil and military officers and a large and influential gathering of European and native gentlemen. Mr. Harrison, the chairman of the Corporation, then read out an address welcoming Their Highnesses to the capital of India.

His Royal Highness then replied as follows :—

Gentlemen of the Corporation and representative Committee of Calcutta,—Accept my warmest thanks for the address of welcome you have just read to me. It affords me great pleasure to visit the capital of India, especially on the occasion of the International Exhibition which is to be opened to-morrow. The cordial reception which my two elder brothers have met with from the inhabitants of this vast and important city had prepared me for the hearty manner in which you have greeted u here to-day. Although I have only been ten days in this country, which forms such an important portion of Her Majesty's Empire, I have seen sufficient to show me how full of interest it is, and how vast its resources. I hope that during my service in India I shall have many opportunities of seeing as much of it as possible, and becoming acquainted with the many great races which constitute its population. I am much gratified to know that the presence of the Duchess of Connaught is so welcome to the people of India, and I can assure you she heartily reciprocates the kind feeling that has been shown her. I will not fail to inform her Majesty the Queen-Empress of the sentiments of loyalty and attachment which you have expressed, and can assure you her Majesty takes the deepest interest in all that concerns the happiness and welfare of her Indian subjects.

THE RECEPTION OF THE VICEROY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, DEC. 3.

The police arrangements at the Viceroy's reception were not open to remark. An excited crowd of low Europeans hissed the Viceroy at intervals. The native demonstrations were unprecedented. There were flags and banners of welcome carried by enormous crowds of enthusiastic people. There were great illuminations at night all over the Nnative Town. The native papers were printed in gold-ink to commemorate the day. The real scandal is in connection with the St. Andrew's dinner. The Viceroy was toasted in silence by the chairman, followed by hissing. The Bishop and great officials were present, and none of them with pluck or decency enough to protest and withdraw. Lord Ripon maintains a dignified and contemptuous silence.

THE PIGOT-HASTIE SCANDAL.

MR. HASTIE DISMISSED.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, DEC. 3.

The Rev. William Hastie has been peremptorily dismissed by the Home Committee of Scotch Missions from their service. There are great rejoicings in all missionary circles here. Mr. Wilson will probably remain under suspension, pending Miss Pigot's appeal against Mr. Justice Norris's judgment.

THE ILBERT BILL.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, DEC. 3.

The agitation in this Province against the Ilbert Bill seems to have collapsed. There have been no public meetings on the subject for some months. The Rangoon Gazette thinks the opponents of the measure must now be convinced that they have lost what prospect they had of a hearing, by the intemperate expression of their views, and the wild writings and speeches of agitators.

ST. ANDREW'S CELEBRATIONS.

Moulmein and Rangoon Scotchmen had dinners on St. Andrew's Day, but, unlike their brethren in Calcutta, they eschewed politics over their whisky and haggis.

THE meeting of the Municipal Corporation which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon was adjourned for want of a quorum, after the Chairman had waited for half an hour. Mr. Nowrozjee Furdoonjee took occasion to observe that this was the fifth or sixth meeting during the present year that had had to be adjourned on account of no quorum being present, and those members who were regular in their attendance were consequently put to great inconvenience and annoyance. The Chairman (Mr. R. N. Khote) having expressed his full concurrence with the remarks of Mr. Nowrozjee, adjourned the meeting until Thursday next.

WE hear that Mr. C. A. Stuart, Presidency Postmaster, takes leave from the 4th inst., and that Mr. Merrett, Deputy Presidency Postmaster, will act for him, Mr. H. Pryce Todd, mail officer, acting as Deputy Presidency Postmaster.

"OLD ALBERT," who died the other day in Bombay, was well off for a mendicant. But Sydney possesses a blind beggar who is richer than Albert was. A report in a local paper states that on Oct. 25 "William Lambert, a blind beggar, was brought before the police magistrate on a charge of insanity. The police on searching him found bank deposit receipts for £280, and £6 8s. 6d. in cash. At his residence another deposit receipt for £100 was found. Having heard the evidence, which went to show that the defendant had a bad temper, but was not actually insane, the magistrate discharged him."

Truth has the following malicious paragraph :—"The recent appointment of Mr. Theodore Beck, a young gentleman of twenty-four, as president of the Mahommedan College near Delhi, with a very handsome salary, has created a good deal of surprise and amusement at Cambridge. Mr. Beck, when at college, distinguished himself as much as a leader of the æsthetic school as in the Mathematical Tripos. It seems, however, that the founder of the native college sent over his son Mahmoud to select a suitable man to succeed Mr. Wilson, who is retiring. Mahmoud was attracted by the gifted Theodore, and quickly decided that he was the very man to have the direction of his father's successful institution. This, I should think, was the first instance on record—excepting, of course, the case of the great Oscar—of æstheticism proving practically useful."

THE Madras Mail for the 1st December appears in a new form, something after the style of the Allahabad and Lahore papers, but with somewhat larger sheets.

A PETITION signed by several members of the Mounted Company of the Calcutta Volunteer Rifles is stated to have been sent in to the Commanding Officer, requesting permission to escort His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught from the railway station to Government House.

THE Englishman publishes reports of meetings held at Kurseong, Mozufferpore, Naini Tal, Bhaugulpore, Mirzapore, Sibsagor, Delhi, North Lukhimpur, under the auspices of the Defence Association, to pass resolutions protesting against the Ilbert Bill being proceeded with even in the modified shape.

WE have received the following telegram :—"Barnum's agent failed to secure hairy family from Mandalay, though he offered liberal terms to induce them to visit America. He has since at a cost of Rs. 15,000 purchased a white or sacred elephant which is travelling to Rangoon and is to be shipped in the steamer Tenasserim for England. This will be the first animal of its kind ever sent out of Asia." If we remember rightly, the last bag of this kind made by Barnum's agent was not quite as white as he had been painted. The new curiosity however, may be whitened up en route to Europe."

EVEN before the turbulent section of non-official society there had disgraced Calcutta by the demonstration of Saturday, the Statesman had become disgusted with the unreasoning and unreasonable spirit shown. We find the following rebuke in Friday's paper :—

"A year or two hence the English community of this city will, we believe, begin to look back with uneasiness that will deepen into shame upon the attempt that has been made for months past by a part of the Press to identify that community with the excesses of its own malignity towards the present Viceroy. It has really come to this—that while every one else in the country, and the councillors, secretaries, and other august persons around the Viceroy, may be permitted to entertain opinions upon this Ilbert Bill and the Tenancy Bill, and Ripon is to hold and express none whatever, upon penalty of being daily insulted, although as English Viceroy, he is more directly responsible for our rule than all others put together. He is to have no opinion whatever but that which an excited Press and community dictate to him. How profoundly true it is that there is no tyranny like the tyranny of the majority. If it were not for the law, the majority is now excited at this moment by the writings of the Press that it would stifle by force all expression of opinion on the Ilbert Bill, contrary to its own. It is largely owing to the unfortunate fact that the great majority of Anglo-Indians are young men ; and this is the only excuse that can be pleaded for these excesses.

* * If ever a dominant race covered itself with disgrace, it is the Anglo-Indian race that is now doing so in this country, by the excesses into which it is going over this Bill. If we are really unable to maintain our position in spite of this Bill, it would not last six months. The contempt we feel for the lengths to which the movement has been carried is too strong for utterance. It is the folly of Rehoboam, and his young courtiers, 'who forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and consulted with the young men which stood before him.' And the penalty of this movement is as certain as it was in Rehoboam's case. Why do not the elder men of the community dissociate themselves from the violence which disgraces the agitation ?"

SIR ARTHUR GORDON, we learn by telegram from Colombo, landed yesterday with great ceremonial in Ceylon.

THE HON'BLE T. C. AND MRS. HOPE arrived at Ahmednuggur, en route to Calcutta, on Friday morning, the 30th Nov., and left the same night. They were met at the station by Mr. Elphinston, Collector; Mr. Woodburn, Forest Settlement Officer; Mr. Shuttleworth, Conservator of Forests ; Mr. Scott, Deputy Collector and City Magistrate; Khan Bahadoor Framjee Andseer, Chairman, Nuggur Municipality ; Khan Bahadoor Nusserwanjee Curseejee, and other native gentlemen of standing and position. Mr. and Mrs. Hope, during their stay, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elphinston. During the day the party went round and visited the sights of the City.

NAWAB BUSHIR-OOD-DOWLAH BAHADUR does not, the Hyderabad paper says, proceed with the Nizam to the Calcutta Exhibition, as was originally intended. "The Council of Regency, which met on Thursday decided, agreeably to the wish of His Highness and the Resident that Nawab Bushir-ood-Dowlah should remain behind, in charge of the Administration during the absence of His Highness the Nizam."

IT appears to have been almost settled, a Calcutta paper says, that Colonel White, R. E., the Mint Master at Bombay, now on leave, is to be the Senior Mint Master, vice Major-General J. F. Tennant, R. E, Master of the Calcutta Mint, who succeeds to colonel's allowance by the middle of January next, and that Major R. V. Riddell, R. E., of the Survey Department, now Officiating Mint Master, Bombay, is to be the Junior Mint Master, on a salary of Rs. 2,000 per mensem, as has been fixed by a Financial Resolution passed by the Government of India a few years ago. But who is to be posted to the Calcutta Mint is not yet definitely known ; it is probable, however, that Major Riddell is the coming man. The selection of Presidencies, we believe, rests with the officers themselves.

"THE Wind and the Whirlwind" is the title of Mr. Wilfrid S. Blunt's new poem, a poetic version, condensed and improved, of the letters on the Egyptian question which its author contributed before and after the campaign to the Times and the Pall Mall Gazette. The poet, prophet, and politician are curiously blended in Mr. Blunt. As a poet, he is at his best as a politician, at his worst. His new poem is said to be full of power and passion, of a beauty and pathos which not even its misreading of recent events can altogether mar. It consists of 103 stanzas, of which the first sets forth Mr. Blunt's object in writing the poem as follows :—

"I have a thing to say. But how to say it ?
I have a cause to plead. But to what ears ?
How shall I move a world by lamentation—
A world which heeded not a nation's tears"

Mr. and Lady Anne Blunt arrived at Hyderabad on the 28th November.

THE Australian census reports for 1881 show that Victoria is the most densely populated colony, having 9·791 persons to the square mile, and Western Australia comes last on the list with only 0·1 to the square mile. From a comparison of the statistics for 1871 with those of 1881, it appears that the population of that colony has increased by 130,818 within the decade.

M. DE BARON R. MICHEL, a French naval officer who distinguished himself in the Crimean war, has arrived in Melbourne, charged with an important official mission by the French Government, namely, that of ascertaining by personal observation and inquiry the best methods of opening up a direct trade between France and the Australian colonies, and also of collecting scientific information for the benefit of the geographical and other learned societies in Paris, of which the Baron is a member. It is the belief of the French Government, the Argus says, and of the leading manufacturers, exporters, and importers in France, that a large and mutually profitable trade is capable of being transacted with Australia, and the Administration is determined to leave no stone unturned for the accomplishment of that object.

THE Prince and Princess of Wales and the Princesses Louise, Victoria, and Maud recently paid their first visit to Prince Albert Victor at Cambridge. After driving through the streets, the Royal party lunched with the Prince in his rooms at Trinity College, and then returned to Sandringham.

AN English provincial journal has unearthed a parallel to the story of "Enoch Arden":—

"The inhabitants of Kingsbridge have been considerably exercised during the past few days over a case which has just occurred in that town. Some years ago a young woman of Kingsbridge was married to a sailor named Lucraft. In due course Lucraft went to sea, and from that time his wife saw him no more. It was credibly reported that her husband had been drowned, and as there appeared to be no reason to doubt the accuracy of this information, Mrs. Lucraft was regarded in the town, and indeed regarded herself, as a widow. She remained in a state of single blessedness for some time, but was eventually wooed and won by a tradesman in the town named Burner. But a few days ago a stranger made his appearance in the town, and calling upon the Kingsbridge tradesman revealed to him the fact that he was the sailor Lucraft. It was Jack Robinson's case—he hadn't been dead at all ! Rumour, however, has it that Lucraft shortly afterwards left the town, and that Burner remains in quiet possession of his wife."

MR. W. H. MALLOCK will, it is said, probably have rivals in Lord Salisbury and Mr. Ruskin for the Lord Rectorship of St. Andrew's University. But it is quite possible that neither of these will stand if nominated ; for Mr. Mallock besides being a personal friend of both is described as an able opponent of their views. The other candidates spoken of are Lord Reay and Mr. J. Russell Lowell, the author of the Biglow Papers.

MILITARY NEWS.

LIEUTENANT E. GIRARD, Calcutta Volunteer Rifles, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant, Presidency Administrative Battalion.

THE detachments of the 14th Madras Native Infantry arrived in Calcutta on the 29th November from Dorunda and Hazareebagh, for embarkation for Madras en route for the camp-of-exercise.

THE first half battalion, 2nd Cheshire Regiment, was to leave Cherat yesterday for Peshawur.

A DETACHMENT of 172 rank and file, 16th (Lucknow Regiment) Native Infantry, arrived at Goruckpore, from Faizabad, on the 20th November.

THE Government of India have decided that Volunteer officers transferred from one corps to another are to be placed junior of the rank they hold in their new corps. The decision does not show whether or not the opinion of the Commander-in-Chief has been taken on the subject, but it is certain to give satisfaction. Officers, whose civil duties take them from one part of India to another may avoid the expense of purchasing a new uniform by simply remaining attached, in which case they will retain the rank held by them in their old corps.

THE Government of India has expressed its approval of the terms on which the Punjab Government proposed to make grants of waste land in the Punjab to native officers in reward for distinguished military services.

THE LATE MAJOR-GENERAL E. W. CHILDERS.—The news of the death in London, on the 1st ultimo, of Major-General Eardley W. Childers, formerly of the Madras, but recently of the Royal Artillery, which was brought by the last mail, has been received with much regret by his many friends in Madras. He was a thoroughly kind-hearted gentleman, a conscientious officer, and consistent Christian. Several years ago, while he was superintendent of the Madras Gunpowder Factory, he prominently identified himself with the Ritualistic movement in this Presidency, and devoted himself especially to the promotion of all good works in connection with St. Matthias's Church, Vepery. He was well read, sociable, and humorous, with a bonhomie about him that made him popular everywhere. And he was a liberal supporter of the benevolent institutions of this city. Of late years he suffered much from failing health, and he was thus compelled to retire from the public service at a comparatively early age. Towards the close of October he paid a visit to his cousin, Mr. Hugh Childers, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, in view chiefly to avoid the inconvenience attending his family's removal into a house in Bayswater which he had recently purchased ; but he did not obtain in the country the repose that he had expected, and he returned to London, sickened, and died at the comparatively early age of fifty.—Madras Mail.

THE Calcutta Volunteer Corps.—The twentieth annual report of the Calcutta Volunteers finds the corps 926 strong, the effective strength consisting of 318 cadets and 608 adult volunteers. The accession of numbers received by the corps last season was no less than 458. This augmentation was due mainly to the addition of two new companies, those of the Bengal Secretariat and Post Office. Out of the 608 comprising the adult companies only 36 were at the conclusion of the season in March last non-efficient, while all the members of the cadet companies are returned as efficient. The strongest company in the Corps is the Mounted Company, which numbers 92 members, the weakest G, or the Bengal Secretariat Company, which has a strength of 42 all told. The best shot in the corps is Corporal D. Campbell, Mounted Company, with 188 points ; the best shooting company F Company ; and the battalion figure of merit 90·61. The capitation grant account shows the largest grant received since the formation of the corps, being Rs. 20,760 against Rs. 15,950 the previous year, the then highest figure. The corps claim a further sum of Rs. 1,800, and we can echo its hope that it will get the amount. It will be gathered from these facts that the Calcutta Volunteers are, in their corporate capacity, in a condition in the highest degree satisfactory. The addition to the strength of the corps by the formation, since the report was written, of the Naval Artillery Volunteers, testifies to the vitality of the Volunteering movement in Calcutta, and there is every indication that it will, as all must wish, continue to flourish.—Englishman.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT'S RECEPTION IN CALCUTTA.

A MEETING of the Members of the General Committee to arrange for the reception of the Duke of Connaught in Calcutta took place on Thursday evening at the Town Hall.

The Chairman opened the proceedings by stating that ten days ago a general meeting appointed him Chairman of an Executive Committee to give effect to the conclusions arrived at the Executive Committee, having completed so far as they were able the programme of the arrangements to be made, desired that a meeting should again be asked to come together in order that their proceedings should be considered by the general meeting, and if approved of, receive formal sanction from the Representative Committee. Among the papers before them the meeting would find the address, which it was proposed should be delivered to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught on his arrival in Calcutta. The other papers contained a list of the proposals which, as a matter of fact, was so drawn up as to give a synopsis at one glance of what the suggestions of the executive committee were. The subscription up to the present moment amounted to Rs. 15,300, and it was hoped that the total amount subscribed would not fall short of Rs.16,000, the amount unsbscribed in Bombay for the same purpose. With regard to illuminations the Government of India had very willingly fallen in with the views of the Committee, and had given orders for the illuminations of Fort William and also the buildings belonging to it. Government House would also be illuminated, and the Government of Bengal had liberally given the sum of Rs. 5,000 for the illumination of all the buildings belonging to that Government, such as the Museum and other places.

The following recommendations of the Committee were then agreed to :—

1. That the address be presented jointly by the Corporation of Calcutta and the Representative Committee of its inhabitants, and that the Corporation be invited to share in the cost of the casket.

2. That in conformity with the commands of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, the address be presented on His arrival at Government House.

3. That the address, as approved of by the Executive Committee, be adopted.

4. That the address be enclosed in a suitable casket, and that the design for a casket by J. W. Browne and Co., recommended by the Executive Committee, to cost Rs. 1,500, be approved of.

5. That the action of the Executive Committee in sanctioning a grant of Rs. 2,000 for decorating the streets along the line of route of His Royal Highness's arrival, and in placing the amount at the disposal of Mr. T. D. Ralli, who has kindly undertaken to superintend the decorations, be confirmed, and the thanks of the Committee be voted to Mr. Ralli for undertaking this charge.

6. That the residents along the line of route and also the Shipping, Strand Road, Fairlie Place, Clive Street, Dalhousie Square, North Lall-dighee, and East and Old Court House Street—be invited to decorate their houses in a suitable manner on the occasion of their Royal Highnesses' entry on the morning of the 21st December.

7. That the illuminations and fireworks be fixed for Thursday, the 6th December, commencing about sunset.

8. That arrangements be made for Their Royal Highnesses to witness the fireworks from the New Race Stand with reference to the letter of the Honorary Secretary to the Turf Club, which will be read to the Meeting.

9. That the action of the Executive Committee, in entrusting the display of fireworks to Messrs. C. E. Price and Co. and in sanctioning an expenditure of Rs. 4,600 for that purpose, be confirmed.

10. That arrangements be made for Their Royal Highness's proceeding to the fireworks via Esplanade East, Chowringhee Road, as far as the Outram Statue, thence down the red road towards the Fort and then turning to the left to pass between the Presidency Jail and the Old Race Stand and via Circular Road to the New Stand. The return journey from the Stand to be by the Strand Road, the High Court and Esplanade Row West, back to Government House.

11. That the sum of Rs. 5,000 be sanctioned for the suitable illumination of the line of route as far as Fort Point to be placed at the disposal of Mr. C. Apcar, who is also authorised, if necessary, somewhat to exceed that amount, and that the thanks of the Committee be voted to Mr. Apcar for undertaking the charge.

12. That the road between the Fort and the High Court be illuminated by electric light, and the action of the Committee in entrusting the work to the Indian Electric Light Co., and in voting Rs. 1,000 for this purpose, be confirmed.

13. That the residents along the above-named lines of route and the Shipping in the Port, especially the ships lying along Strand-road, be invited to illuminate on the evening of the 6th.

14. That the thanks of the Committee be tendered to the Government of India for ordering the illumination of the Fort, the Ochterlony Monument and of other buildings belonging to the Government of India. Also to the Government of Bengal for similarly ordering the illumination of the buildings under that Government.

15. That the thanks of the Committee be also conveyed to the Port Commissioners for consenting to decorate the Hooghly Bridge and their premises on the date of the entry of their Royal Highnesses into Calcutta, to the Municipality for illuminating the Town Hall and to the Turf Club for allowing the Committee the use of Race Stand.

With reference to the first three items, the Chairman explained that that was the programme that had been drawn up as a matter of course by him. He had forwarded it with a letter to the Private Secretary to the Viceroy for approval. Mr. Harrison simply enquired where the address was to be presented. In reply, a telegram was sent to the effect that the Viceroy fully approved of the arrangements proposed by the Committee ; that the presentation of the address must depend on the hour of arrival, which was then not known ; and that the Viceroy thought Government House was the very best place to present it. After some discussion, he telegraphed to Lord William Beresford, who said that he would telegraph and ascertain from H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught what his views were. A telegram was accordingly sent to the Inquerry of the Duke of Connaught, stating where His Royal Highness would like the address to be presented, and the answer came back to the effect that the Duke would receive the address in Government House. That was the command ; it must be obeyed by one, and even if it had not been one, it should at once be accepted.

Mr. J. G. Apcar said :—Sir, I have very great pleasure in seconding this resolution (applause). I was present at the interview with Lord William Beresford to which I had been invited by Mr. Harrison. I learned from Lord William that he had sent a telegram enquiring from the Duke of Connaught where H. R. H. would wish to receive the address, without mentioning that the Executive Committee recommended Howrah Station as the place for the reception. He yesterday received a reply by telegram from the Inquerry of Lord Downe. A. D. C. to the Duke, a copy of which I now hold in my hand. The telegram is worded as follows :—"H. R. H. will receive address on arrival at Government House." This, Gentlemen, is a command, and I am very glad of the opportunity to say, on behalf of the Defence Association, that we shall be delighted to obey H. R. H.'s command (applause) as, indeed, we would his slightest wish expressed directly to us. I may here refer to a rumour that was abroad yesterday. It was stated that the Duke had said that he would not accept an address at any place except Government House. I enquired of the person from whom the information had been stated to have emanated, how it had come about that H. R. H. had so spoken. He replied in the presence of Mr. Harrison that the Duke had never said any thing of the sort. I am therefore in a position on the highest authority to contradict the rumour. There is no foundation for it, as we may have anticipated. H. R. H. only observes the tradition honored and scrupulously by another of the Royal Family. He takes no part in any political question, and is strictly neutral. We are cordially glad that he is amongst us. We shall take advantage of every opportunity open to us of showing our loyalty and attachment for the throne and person of our beloved Queen, and of our respect and deep sense of loyalty to H. R. H. as a son and the representative of Her Majesty. (Loud applause.)

An addition was made to item 7 to the effect that the Government be asked to grant a public holiday on the 6th. The Chamber of Commerce had been consulted before the recommendation had been made, and no objection was raised to the grant of the holiday by that body.

With reference to admission to the Race Stand on the night of the illumination, it was resolved "that it be left to the Executive Committee to issue invitations in such way as they think fit," without indicating how this is to be done.

It was stated that the time was too short to permit of the illumination of the Monument, and it was also stated that the inhabitants of Howrah should be given a few hints as to how to illuminate their houses. The meeting then came to a close.—Englishman.

THE CASKET FOR THE ADDRESS.—We understand that the design furnished by Mr. James W. Browne, the jeweller of Esplanade Row, has been selected for the presentation casket to be given to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught on his arrival in Calcutta.—Englishman.

THE TAKHT-I-SULIEMAN EXPEDITION.

A CORRESPONDENT writes :—"At last the troops under General Kennedy have got through the Zao Pass having been halted two days to make the road passable. Even when this was done, the road was not much to boast of ; for it took the greater part of the force from 6-15 in the morning till 5 in the afternoon to get into camp, the whole march being only five miles. In one place the road was blocked by a large stone, which had to be partly blown away to make room ; and the loads of 2,000 camels, and nearly every mule load, had to be taken off and carried through by men. The Zao Tangi, which they reached on the 22nd, is 3,600 feet high, and is not in the least cold. The rear guard on this march did not arrive in camp till the next morning. From this place, the Takht seems to have dreadful precipices on all sides, two and three thousand feet sheer drop. It was as well for General Kennedy and his force that the Zao Pass was not held, for it is an exceedingly difficult one and not pleasant to take. The first three miles are very narrow, in places not more than ten or twelve feet. There is water the whole way. When in flood, the force of the torrent must be very great. The strata run right up on end, with slabs over 100 feet high in places. The rocks are much worn by the force of the water, which is brackish and bad to drink. The rocks are either conglomerate or limestone. On the 23rd, the force reached a place called Kash Magari, the distance being four miles. The road was sandy and stony, and in the bed of a nullah ; and it was a great improvement on the Pass road. The troops ascended for about ten miles, until they reached a level of 5,000 feet above the level of the sea, and then descended 950 feet before they reached camp. The course of this march was towards the south. A short distance from camp, they came to the Pitana river, which rises behind the Takht in two branches, and to the south-west runs through a gap in the hills—a cut in a large slab of rock—and this forms the Draband Zam stream in our territory. It would be quite impossible to pass except by swimming. So far, the country has been ugly, bare, and uncultivated ; indeed, this was the first encamping ground where there was any cultivation to be seen, and here the troops encamped in some fields on the bank of the stream. The old Frontier spirit is as strong as ever in General Kennedy's compact little force ; and the men have worked splendidly at road-making, &c., and have kept cheerful and happy under somewhat trying circumstances. Major Rivaz has been sent back to Dera Ismail, and is quite laid up for the present. Hitherto, no messages have been sent by heliograph. It is possible that the glasses are too small to be seen at such a distance."—Civil and Military Gazette.

WE have just received a consignment of NEW RACE OR CHRONOGRAPH WATCHES which for durability, accuracy precision, and convenience leave nothing to be desired.

The Chronograph hand is in front of the watch over the hour and minut hands. The cases are extra strong, with a solid cover on the back and a glass inside to protect the work.

The general objections to the Chronographs with second hand and glass on the back were that those glasses often broke, and each time necessitated a cleaning; that the glasses did not thoroughly protect the works from dust; and that to move the regulator it almost required the help of a watchmaker.

All these serious drawbacks of an otherwise good watch have been avoided in the construction of our new and improved Chronograph watches.

They are in stock—
